News From

Alberta Towns...

As Reported in Exchange Weeklies

The Town of Hanna is preparing for the celebration of its 28th birthday on August 7th, 1940. The purpose is to bring the residents of the town and district together for a day of genuine fellowship and entertainment. The Vulcan Advocate won distinction amongst Canadian Weekly Newspapers at the recent convention held in Calgary, placing second for papers having the best front page in the circulation class of 500 to 1,000. The Lacombe Globe won the Hugh Savage Shield for being the best all round paper in the Dominion, also in the 500 to 1,000 circulation class. Brooks Board of Trade are making early plans for the "Last Roundup" Celebration to be held on Labor Day in September.

On Friday evening, July 19th, citizens of Gleichen and district will entertain boys from that town who have enlisted with the 22nd battery at a special banquet. Two Nanton Farmers, Arthur Wanop and his son, Leslie, died as a result of a truck collision with a train at a crossing just outside of Nanton on Wednesday of last week. Major R. C. Jessup, former editor of the MacLeod Gazette left on Wednesday of last week for Winnipeg where he reported for duty with reinforcements for the first division, C.A.S.F. Camrose has raised $3,915 for Red Cross Ambulance Funds. Five drowning victims in the Drumheller district, all in the family, were taken to rest at Lacombe on Monday of last week. The sixth victim of the accident was buried in Drumheller. Ambulance Funds in Strathmore amounted to $1,700, when the campaign in the district closed last week. A community swimming pool in Cardston collapsed just before its official opening. The pool is being rebuilt, and reinforced, and is expected to open shortly. The Town of Raymond is to have a non-permanent militia unit, to be known as the Sixth Park Unit of the Royal Engineers. Twenty-five lads joined up at the formation of the unit.

HAIL DAMAGES CROPS IN HUSSAR, MAKEPEACE DIST.

Estimated to be 100 per cent on some farms; Saturday storm.

A disastrous hail storm on Saturday last saw farmers' hopes blasted in the Hussar and Makepeace districts, as damages varying from 15 to 100 per cent were reported. The storm seemed to centralize itself in the Hussar district, where the greatest damage was reported.

Territory damaged extended from Hussar to Makepeace, and the storm cut out a path approximately 8 miles wide and 15 miles long. Around the village of Hussar damage is estimated to be 100 per cent. In the area west of Makepeace, damage was not quite so great, varying from 15 to 80 per cent. North of Makepeace, the damage varied from 80 to 100 per cent. It is believed that some of the crops will recover sufficiently to make good feed.

No hail damage is reported in the area south of Makepeace, and very little from farmers between Bassano and Makepeace.

It is understood that very little hail insurance was carried by farmers in the districts from which damage was reported.

Minister Outlines Registration Plan on National Scale

A nation-wide plan for the registration of every man and woman in Canada above the age of 16 years has been announced by Hon. James G. Gardiner, Minister of National War Services. National registration is a first step in carrying out the objects of the National Resources Mobilization Act.

Four days will be set aside about August 14 for registration purposes. Federal Election machinery will be set up again to conduct the registration throughout the Dominion.

The National War Service Department this week made public the questionnaire for national registration to be answered by all Canadian residents.

It contains 18 questions to be answered by men. Women must answer the first 15 questions, directed to the men and an additional four special questions.

CROWD PACKS THEATRE MONDAY EVE

Show in aid of sale of War Savings Stamps proved entertaining

A capacity crowd of Bassano and district citizens attended the show in the Orpheum Theatre on Monday evening of this week, in aid of the sale of War Savings Stamps and Certificates. Mr. Ubertino, manager of the theatre, reported that he was exceptionally pleased with the response of citizens of the district to the effort put forth by the Canadian Moving Picture Industry, and that at Bassano the sum of one hundred and fourteen dollars was raised to further the Canadian War Effort.

Co-operation of several local business men in handling the stamps and admission tickets for the show assisted greatly in making the presentation such a success. One local merchant went so far as to take time out from his store to make a personal canvass, selling a large number of stamps and tickets in doing so.

The name of the show, "The Spirit of Gulver", remained a mystery to most patrons until the title was flashed upon the screen. Following the conclusion of the picture, all heartily agreed that the show had been good entertainment and the nature of the story of the picture was most appropriate for the occasion.

Pictures were played in every theatre in the Dominion over the week-end, to assist in raising finances for Canada to help win the war. From reports appearing in daily newspapers, it is believed that a sum in excess of one million dollars will be secured from the Moving Picture Industry's contribution.

DETAINED IN BASSANO; CHARGED UNDER DEFENCE REGULATIONS

Major Fred T. Foort, British-Israel World Federation speaker, was detained in Bassano by R.C.M.P. Officers, last week, and taken to Calgary where he appeared in court to answer charges under the Defence of Canada Regulations the first of this week.

Complaints about Major Foort's addresses were turned into the police by several Calgary Military officers, following an address before a Calgary audience of some six hundred persons. It was claimed that his address tended to cause disloyalty to his Majesty's forces, would hinder recruiting, and the sale of War Stamps. It was reported that he painted a very blue picture of the present world situation. Sentence had not been announced at time of going to press this week. Major Foort was a retired Indian Army Officer, who for twenty-seven years had served in the Imperial Army in India, and who for forty years has been a student of Prophecy. He was slated to speak at a number of Alberta towns, including Bassano, in coming weeks.

It is understood that the Major was endeavoring to make arrangements to speak in Bassano when he was taken into custody. He was slated to speak in Brooks last week.

Plan Bigger and Better Show Than Ever: Full Program of Stampede and Racing Events

The annual Gem Stampede will be held in Gem Colony, fifteen miles north-west of Bassano, on Wednesday, July 31st. This stampede, acclaimed the leading one-day Stampede in the Province, is expected to draw visitors from all central sections of Alberta, and the committee in charge of its presentation are sparing neither time nor effort to make it one well worth attending.

A full bill of Bucking and stampede events, Roping, Horse racing, Athletics and Children's sports has been arranged.

Novelty Races of all kinds.

Athletic events will commence at 11 a.m. sharp, with stampede and race entries being run off during the afternoon.

Lunch and refreshment booths will be located on the grounds to cater to the crowd that will be present.

It is expected that the Brooks Band will be in attendance to provide a little added entertainment during the afternoon. This band was recently organized in Brooks, and following many weeks of strenuous practise, are reported to be capable of dishing up band music on a par with any band in Central Alberta.

Several boxing bouts are being arranged to provide a variety of entertainment during the course of the afternoon.

In the evening, the Gem Community Hall will be the scene of a large Stampede Dance. Good music will be supplied for this affair, and everyone is invited to attend.

The days' activity is sponsored by a group of energetic men in tennis talk

By a Tennis Fan

The local tennis club wishes to advise all tennis minded persons that the courts are in fine condition, a lot of work has been done and considerable money spent to put them in shape. Our biggest worry now is to get players to turn out in sufficient numbers to make our efforts seem worth while. If you play tennis turn out and let us see you do your stuff. If you can't play come out and learn. Club members will help you start off on the right foot. We need your support and will appreciate it.

Bassano is indebted to men like Capt. McLaws for giving so much of their time—and at times their money—to make such good healthy sports as curling and tennis possible in our town. We can think of no other sports that pay such high dividends in health as those mentioned above.

The juniors are very conspicuous by their absence so far this year. What's the matter, juniors, can't you take it. The older members are becoming fewer each tennis season and it is up to the young folks to take up the slack for their own benefit in the coming years. We suggest that parents encourage their children to take up this good clean, inexpensive sport.

We are glad to see some of our American friends on the courts occasionally. We hope more of them will turn out and enjoy the game while they are in our midst.

We wish to congratulate Gordon McLaws on his wonderful showing in Calgary recently, he, having won the city junior tennis championship. More power to you Gordie. We miss you and your dad (the Cap-it-an) on the courts this year and hope to see you back in the not too distant future.

There is another whom we miss very much on the courts this season—Bassano's own "Dode" MacLean. To the younger generation Dode set a shining example of how an obligation once undertaken should be carried out to a successful conclusion. As each tennis season rolled around, he volunteered to take care of one court. The members know how well he done his work. He was the club's junior king pin. We miss his faithful help and happy mannerisms, and his untimely death leaves a large sized gap in local sporting circles. He was our idea of a fine young gentleman, and a straight-shooting sport.

NEW SHEEP BREEDS TO FILL WOOL NEEDS

The Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister Agriculture, has announced that the Dominion is developing new breeds of sheep to produce varieties of wool heretofore imported mainly from the Antipodes. With New Zealand and Australian supplies virtually cut off, encouragement is given by the Department to home production.

Gem Colony, interested in carrying out community work throughout the year. Committee appointments in charge are Len Standen, secretary; J. P. Royer, president, and Walter Peake, Stampede Manager.

Keep the date in mind, July 31st—that's the date of the Gem Stampede.

FLOYD T. CARY, PUBLISHER

"Why Should We Fight For England?"

"Why should we fight?" he asked me, "Cause England is at war? Why are they fighting now, dad, what are they fighting for? What does it mean to you, dad, to babe and mums and me? The Germans won't come here from away across the sea. So why should you go there, dad, and leave us here to cry? Is it 'cause England owns us? Is that the reason why?" His eyes looked widely at me, I tightly held my son, And this is how I answered his questions one by one.

"We fight when England calls us, for in her sacred keep The ashes of our fathers lie in her soil—asleep. And many times for England they fought that she'd be free And they are part of England, and so, my son, are we. And some may pass her by, lad, and some may scorn her hand, But we must be forever a part of that fair land. For everything we have, son, that's good, and fine and just Was washed in British blood and given to us in trust. And we must keep that trust, son, against the force of greed And fight beside Old England whenever she's in need. And once again she's calling, across the Empire wide And all her Empires answer, 'You'll find us at your side.' Oh yes, we're owned by England, but we won England, too, As you are part of me, son, and I am part of you."

Royal Canadian Air Force

AIR GUNNERS and Air Observers, unsung heroes of the first great war, have come into their own in the modern style of sky fighting. A Royal Canadian Air Force crew works with all the close co-ordination of a football team in this new war.

The gunners and observers share the pages of Air Force gallantry along with the pilots. It is "all for one and one for all", since the pilots of today cannot carry out his mission without the aid of his gunners for the protection and wireless communication and his observer for navigation, bombing, photography and observation.

The Royal Air Force innovation of a multiple-gun power turret mounted in an aeroplane has enabled keen-eyed air gunners of the Empire air forces to take deadly toll of enemy aircraft with slashing broadsides of machine-gun fire like a salvo from a battleship's heavy guns.

The four-gun turrets make Britain's latest fighters and bombers literally battleships of the air. Just as the R. A. F. was first to arm single seat fighters with a devastating volume of fire from eight machine guns mounted in the wing, the power turrets now provide the larger planes with a dealer weapon than their antagonists.

The air gunner is of tremendous importance in this war. Bombing and reconnaissance aircraft carrying the Empire's insignia on their wings make a formidable foe, as tremendous German air losses in recent massed fighting over France indisputably proved.

The Boulton and Paul Defiant, newest two seater fighters, is essentially an aeroplane for the gunner. The shooting is left to the gunner enclosed in the power turret just behind the pilot's seat. Four machine guns each capable of a rate of 1,200 rounds a minute poke from the turret, which revolves automatically at the touch of a control. He can fire forward, upward, downward on each side, and sweep a hail of nickel-jacketed death at the rate of 80 bullets a second at any plane crossing the tail of his own machine. As the line of fire crosses his own rudder and tail fins, the guns cease fire automatically, resuming their clatter when safely past the tail assembly.

Defiants, similar in appearance to the single seater Spitfires, mixed with spitfire formations during the fierce air fighting over Dunkirk. Swarms of German fighters dove at the "Spitfires" from the rear in anticipation of easy victory, but met a stinging fire from the Defiants' four-gun turrets while the real spitfires, secure as to defence behind, opened up with their eight wing guns at anything that lay in front of the mixed formation. One squadron of 12 Defiants knocked down 50 German planes in two days without losing one of their own number.

Big British Bombers and flying boats mount power turrets in their noses, as "blisters" on the top of the fuselage, and as a sting in the tail. Their gunners, battling against numerical superiority of the enemy, have made scores easily comparable to the individual tallies of the fighter pilots in Hurricanes and Spitfires.

But gunners, like observers, have more than one job to do in the modern air force. The aircraft's crew must function with the team work and precision of a star formation flying squadron at a peacetime air display.

Gunners are wireless operators, too. By their radio they keep in touch with ground control stations and with other planes in the formation. While war planes keep radios silent as much as possible to avoid detection, once the enemy is sighted, the radio crackles orders. The voice of the formation commander issues movement orders just as a naval commander marshals his vessels into battle array.

On more prosaic missions of co-operating with army and navy, the wireless operator relays to artillery batteries and ground commanders what those in his plane can see, spotting artillery fire and revealing movements of enemy forces, operators working with the fleet or on convoy duty relay information of an enemy submarine or other raider sighted.

Air observers become air navigators and air bombers when

In Ottawa

By F. W. Genhaw, M. P.

The Prime Minister accepted with regret the refusal of the two Conservative leaders to share in the deliberation of the War Cabinet Committee. The leaders of the C. C. F. and the Social Credit parties also implied that they could not accept as they were elected to support socialistic and money policies that the larger parties in the House had not advocated.

I am under the impression that if the positions had been reversed and Mr. King had been asked to sit in a Conservative War Cabinet that he too would have refused. He is a strong advocate of Parliamentary Government. This system requires a Government made up of the leaders of the party having the majority of members in the House of Commons and of a watchful, aggressive opposition ready to criticize and condemn any policy or action that they disagree with. A strong opposition has a real function and is one of the important factors in assuring good government. It is the British system that has stood the test of time and has been evolved after long years of trial and error.

Right after the clash Mr. King went across and, in the most friendly fashion, showed Mr. Hanson, the Conservative leader, some long confidential War messages.

The response to the registration will be a measure of the loyalty of the Canadian people. This step has been strongly urged by the Conservatives. The promises made by both parties before the election that there will be no conscription for overseas service will be kept. If the need arises some classes will be asked to train for the defence of their homes but the registration is needed for different reasons. It is needed in connection with the Unemployment Insurance measure, the National Health Department, the Old Age pensions, the Agricultural Relief measure and particularly in regard to War activities.

Every man and woman over 16 years of age will be asked to go to a specially appointed place and fill out a card. About three days will be allowed for this. A great voluntary appeal will be made. Churches, Service Clubs, lodges and all similar organizations, will be urged to help. At an election only about 70 per cent of the voters can be induced to go to the polls but 100 per cent of the people will be asked to go to show their loyalty in this effort. To avoid last minute congestion, early registration will be greatly appreciated as soon as the booths are opened.

their trained eyes are not sweeping the world below, sketching maps or taking aerial photographs. As navigators, it is their responsibility to lay the course through fog and rain or blackness of night from the home base to the objective, and, once there, to lead the crew safely home again. They are also skilled in using the complex electrical bombing sight, lying prone with an eye glued to the bombsight aiming through a glass window in the floor. A finger touch on a button close at hand opens the bomb ports, sending the missiles plunging to the target.

The prospective air gunners and observers report to a training depot, where they receive uniforms and kit, learn to salute and drill for two weeks or so. The next step is four weeks in an initial training school for a more formal introduction to Air Force life.

They next go to specialized schools. Air observers proceed to one of 10 air observers schools for 12 weeks of intensive study of the intricacies of air navigation, reconnaissance work and photography. Then follow six weeks of bombing and gunnery school, of which there are 10, and then a course of four weeks at one of the two air navigation schools for

Robbery At Imperial Oil Warehouse

Take Oil, Tires, Valued at Approximately 75 dollars

Thieves forced their way into the local Imperial Oil Warehouse, operated by Joe Harris, the early part of this week, and took two tires and two cases of oil, valued at approximately seventy-five dollars. Local R.C.M.P. were called to the scene of the robbery, and conducted an investigation, but at time of going to press no trace has been found of the goods.

Entry was gained by breaking the door fastener, without damaging the lock. This is the first robbery to have been reported in Bassano for over a year and a half.

RAINSTORMS OVER WEEK- END ASSURE AMPLE MOISTURE IN DISTRICT

Rainfall amounting to 1.08 inches over the week-end assured wheat growers and farmers of the Bassano District with sufficient moisture to see their crops fill out in a satisfactory manner, and give fair yields this year, according to reports received in Bassano on Wednesday of this week. In two showers on Saturday last, .37 of an inch of moisture fell, and on Tuesday, an additional .21 inches fell, according to the rain gauge located on the local E. I. D. property in Bassano.

Local farmers stated that the critical situation of a couple of weeks ago, when crops faced a shortage of moisture, has been altogether changed. Last week, 1.68 inches of rain fell, making a total for the two weeks of 2.76 inches.

Indications are that the rainy spell is not yet over. For intervals each day this week, the sky has become overcast, and rain clouds have passed over. It has been during these intervals that showers have occurred in the district.

SPECIAL RAILWAY FARES FOR SOLDIERS

According to a statement by the Department of National Defence, personnel of the Canadian Active Service Force are entitled to round trip tickets on the railways for the price of one-way fare by obtaining forms from their commanding officer. They are also entitled to any excursion fares in effect for civilians.

Cook Electrically

With an Electric Range there is no combustion. Therefore no products of combustion spread through your kitchen and home soiling walls, drapes, and furniture. Your home stays clean always. It's cooler, too, because Electric Ranges are insulated to prevent radiation of cooking heat. And, in actual cooking, there is no waste or spoilage. Automatic controls give you exact cooking temperatures and times. You get full-flavored meals in less time, with less effort, and at surprisingly little cost.

COOK ELECTRICALLY

The Modern Way to Carefree Days

For those who require their ranges to heat their kitchens in the wintertime, there are Combination Coal-Electric Ranges now available at their dealer's.

In conjunction with an Electric Range, an installation to give a constant supply of Hot Water at Special Low Rates can be obtained.

Cheese Factory Opens, Rosemary

After a long and tedious task by members of the Rosemary Co-operative Dairies Association, Ltd., the Rosemary Cheese Factory opened its doors for operation on Thursday last, July 11th.

Persons will find in the Rosemary Cheese Factory one of the most modern and up-to-date cheese factories in western Canada, with all the latest improved cheese making machinery. When in maximum capacity, the equipment in the factory will take care of 20,000 lbs. of milk daily. In the first week of operation, the factory received over ten tons of sweet milk, which was greatly beyond expectations of all persons concerned.

The cheese that is made from this milk is cooled and cured in one of the finest mechanical refrigeration plants located in a rural area.

Any farmer in the district interested in the production of milk, no matter if in large or small quantities, will find the factory a willing buyer, and settlement of accounts will be made every week-end. Everyone is urged to keep a watchful eye on the progress of the factory, which, of course will be greatly improved if farmers from this, and adjacent district, will send all their available sweet milk to the factory.

There is a great demand for cheese at the present time and it will assist in the war effort if farmers will do their part in bringing this production to a maximum.

If you are interested, give the Rosemary Cheese Factory a trial. You will get good weights, good tests, and courteous treatment from every member of the staff. Don't delay—do it now.

RAILROAD LABOR FOR "MORAL REARMAMENT"

"Moral Rearmament", a movement which has enlisted hundreds of thousands of men and women in all walks of life in the United States and other parts of the world, has been officially endorsed by the Railway Labor Executives' Association.

Action was taken after George M. Harrison, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks and former chairman of the association had made a statement which deeply moved the rail labor chieftains.

"The forces of destruction abroad in the world today threaten the foundations of our democracy. Civilization is in danger as never before, and the freedom of man is in the balance", Harrison declared.

"It is an easy matter to lay the blame on others, and to refuse to walk the straight path of personal responsibility. But the times demand an honest facing, by every man and every nation, of their own guilt in our common crisis."

"Such a time presents to labor both a challenge and an opportunity," Harrison continued. "From us, as from every group, is demanded a frank recognition of our share of the blame. A movement divided against itself can make small contribution to a world similarly divided."

HOME TOWN LOYALTY

Remember that no outsider is going to help you build your town. Every time you give business to an outsider that can be as advantageously placed with your home town firms, you are making the community poorer.

It is the local business houses who pay wages to local people, who pay the heaviest taxes, who are called on to subscribe to the various organizations and appeals for help.

We admire the customer who gives the home town an even break. There are many little services and accommodations given that no outsider can or will give. Be loyal to your own community—for one good turn deserves another.

INSERTED BY YOUR HOME-TOWN
PRINTING OFFICE

The Bassano Recorder

The resolution unanimously adopted by the railroad labor chiefs follows:

"One of the most baffling questions before this nation today is how to break the vicious circle of bitterness that commonly enters all negotiations between groups having conflicting interests. Our greatest need is for the rise of a new spirit that will replace that bitterness with creative planning for national unity."

"For that change, labor has a joint responsibility with all other groups of our citizens, and we are convinced that the time has come to face it squarely on the principles of moral rearmament. Accordingly we pledge ourselves to help labor find its place of moral leadership in American life, and set at pattern of co-operation within its own ranks."

STANLEY HASKAYNE, Prop.*Canada to Supply Army with Universal Carriers

UNIVERSAL machine gun carriers will soon be added to the list of army vehicles made in Canada for the fighting forces at home and overseas. These are equipped with caterpillar treads and are very manoeuvrable and speedy. They are armoured against small arms fire and will carry three Bren guns, or can be used to carry ammunition, wireless sets and other necessary equipment. They will be produced in the Windsor plant of Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, which has been selected as the most suitable for the production of this vehicle. In the lower photograph, Mr. Wallace R. Campbell, president of the Canadian Ford organization, is shown with Lieut.-Col. D. C. Warnica, officer commanding the Essex Tank Battalion, Windsor, inspecting one of the Universal carriers. Other army vehicles now made in the Ford plant in Windsor include the powerful four-wheel drive gun tractor pictured above. These and other types of military vehicles are rolling off the assembly line of the Canadian Ford plant which is supplying nearly 10,000 units to the Canadian army and another 25,000 units for military purposes to other Empire governments. The plant is now being expanded by a $700,000 addition to provide facilities for building Universal carriers and to increase production of other types of military vehicles.

Local Items of Interest

REGISTERED AND CERTIFIED SEED DISTRIBUTED

Figures now available on the amount of Registered and Certified seed distributed over this spring's sowing, show an increase of more than 30,000 bushels over that of last year. Through the Alberta crop improvement Association, the farmers have purchased a total of 92,052 bushels of high quality field inspected seed grain. This amount does not include seed purchased by farmers direct from seed growers in their own district, which is estimated at approximately 20,000 bushels.

Of the total amount of seed distributed, there was approximately 46,300 bushels of wheat, 40,612 bushels of oats, and 4,100 bushels of Marquis and Thatcher. The sale of Victory oats was greater than all other varieties combined which included Legacy, Banner, Abundance, Eagle and Early Miller, named in order of preference. O. A. C. 21 barley is still the leading variety. Sales of Registered and Certified flax amounted to 1,672 bushels.

The distribution of seed during the first year in operation of the Alberta Crop Improvement Association has proven most satisfactory. This Association, initiated by the Provincial Department of Agriculture, includes the Field Crops Branch, the Alberta Seed Growers' Association, and the Farmer owned and Line Elevator companies. Through the co-operative effort of these organizations, the farmer is able to purchase the highest quality seed, without distribution costs direct from his local elevator agent.

HAYING TIME

Cut hay early. The loss of protein which occurs when hay is left standing until late in the season is a serious matter it is necessary to lower feeding value of the hay, but also because it is necessary to provide this protein from other sources. It has been estimated that as much as $4.00 to $6.00 per acre is lost by cutting hay to late.

Young plants are high in protein, which produces growth in animals; old plants are high in fibre. The ideal practice is to cut the hay when the largest quantity of protein per acre may be obtained.

In Alberta, cut clover for hay when 25 per cent of the bloom has turned brown. Sweet clover should be cut when the crop is just blooming. Alfalfa should be cut when about 10 to 50 per cent of the crop is in bloom. Timothy and other grasses should be cut in the bloom state.

Early cut hay, having a higher protein content will not require as much mill feed or other grain supplements.
